Joseph Thibean, who was arrested on the charge of furnishing liquor to Napoleon Paquin, was given a hearing in city court this morning and was discharged by Judge Scott. Two witnesses were put onto the stand, including Paquin, who swore that Thibean was the man who bought the liquor for him last Sunday. Paquin said he gave Thibean a dollar, and he went to get two pints of whiskey. Mrs. Rudolph Paits, at whose house Thibean resides, was then called, and she testified that Thibean was not out of the house all day Sunday and could not have purchased the liquor for Paquin.

To-night will mark the close of a mighty good program of vaudeville at the Pavilion, all three acts being excellent. Clark and Hanson, the comedy musical act, who have been making such a big hit, are going to present a new act to-night. Mr. Clark, manager of the act, states that, with the exception of one musical number, the act to be presented to-night will be entirely different from the act used Monday and Tuesday. He will appear in an Irish character, instead of the "rube" make-up he has been using, and will tell all new jokes, thus giving a complete change of his act. This, with the change of pictures, which comes to-day, will give the patrons of this popular little theatre an almost complete change of program.

PIANO RECITAL AT SEMINARY.

Miss Averill Charmed Large Audience by Rendering of Classical Program.

It is seldom that Barre people have an opportunity to enjoy such a musical treat as that given by Miss Alice Averill in her piano recital last night at the seminary. The program was very classical and contained a number of selections by modern Russian composers, who are receiving so much attention at the present time by the musical world. Although many of the selections were extremely difficult, she rendered them with such ease and mastery that they were enthusiastically received by the large audience present. Her execution, her interpretation, her touch and her ability to bring out the character of the selection and the thought of the composer, all showed that she is an artist of unusual merits.

The program follows: Part I. Prelude, E minor, Op. 35, Mendelssohn; (a) Novellotte, B minor, Rimsky-Korsakoff; (b) Scherzo, Op. 48, No. 2, "Naprawnik"; Polonaise, Op. 46, No. 12, MacDowell; Pres de la Mer (By the Seashore), "Arensky; La Nuit (The Night), Etude, Op. 10, No. 3, Chopin; Romance sans Paroles, Saint-Saens; Valse, E flat major (Springtime), "Arensky. Part II. Hungarian Rhapsodie, No. 12, Liszt; Polonaise, A flat major, Op. 53, Chopin.

NORTHFIELD.

Fire in House of Mrs. Wilder, When Gasoline Fumes Ignited.

The use of gasoline in the residence of Mrs. Wilder on Pearl street came near causing a serious conflagration Saturday afternoon. Edward Wilder had cleaned some clothes with the fluid and, without carefully rinsing them, put them into a boiler on the stove. In a short time the fumes ignited and the room was badly burned while trying to extinguish the fire and Mrs. Wilder was also quite seriously burned in passing through the room, having to go directly through the flames in order to escape. The fire alarm was sounded, but extinguishers and the assistance of people nearby proved sufficient to put out the flames before the fire company arrived. The room was badly damaged.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. M. LaFlower died Saturday afternoon and was buried Monday in the Catholic cemetery.

A small building on the Sam King farm was struck by lightning during the severe thunderstorm last week Tuesday night, and was burned. The farm had recently been purchased by Mrs. Sanderson, but her loss will be slight, as the building was used only as a workshop.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Cutler observed their 50th wedding anniversary Friday by a gathering of their children and grandchildren. They were presented a sum of money and other gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutler were married in East Randolph, but have spent most of their life in Northfield. Of their three sons, Cassius, Harry and Curtis, the two former were present, but the latter was detained at his home in Keene, N. H.

Most of her life had been spent with Mrs. Hill, where the funeral was held Friday, Rev. A. H. Webb officiating, with interment in the Center cemetery.

Mrs. Charles C. Reed, aged 75 years, died Wednesday, September 28, at her home in Northfield Center. Zilpha S. Tinkham was born in Waitsfield in 1832, and lived there until her marriage with Mr. Reed, when she removed to this town. Beside her husband, she is survived by three sons, Herbert E. Reed of Northfield, Clarence A. Reed of Waitsfield, and Frank E. Reed of Reading, Mass. The funeral was held Friday from her home, Rev. Walter Dole of Enfield, N. H., officiating, and interment took place in the Center cemetery.

Captain and Mrs. L. A. I. Chapman left here Saturday for San Francisco, where they will remain until November 5, when they will sail for the Philippines, where Captain Chapman will join his command. He had been here for four years and was highly commended for his work at the university.

The trustees of the university tendered him a dinner Friday at the Northfield house, where he was presented a loving cup, and Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. H. Spooner entertained in honor of Mrs. Chapman. When they left here, the corps of cadets, accompanied by its band, was at the depot to bid them farewell, as well as a large number of the townspeople, for Mr. and Mrs. Chapman were popular socially, as well as in the former's position as professor of military science and tactics.

Why Is Your Neighbor Prosperous; owns his own home with modern conveniences; and is getting ahead and enjoying life, while you live in an unsatisfactory rented house with few improvements, paying good money for rent each month and keeping about even?

A question worth the consideration of every thinking man and woman in Barre who is paying rent. The answer in nine cases out of ten is that your neighbor has made a start in some small way and you have not. He may have purchased a home on easy terms, paying monthly; or may have purchased a lot on easy terms and erected a house. Hundreds in Barre have started toward independence by first purchasing a lot with no idea of building but for the purpose of trading it in toward a home as first payment. This is being done not only in Barre but in every live city in New England.

Over one hundred lots have been sold in Barre this season. Most of them have been purchased by laboring men on easy terms. Isn't that a sign of prosperity? Are you going to share in it? If not, why not? A suggestion. Come with us on

Saturday Afternoon, October 8th, to Goldsbury Park, Beckley St., and watch us sell the remaining lots on this tract at auction. Every lot will be sold regardless of value—just what those present wish to pay. The chances are that you can make $50.00 or $100.00 buy from $200.00 to $400.00 in value. Easy terms—$5.00 down on a lot secures it. Balance so easy you do not miss it. Only five to eight minutes' walk from stone sheds, near electric cars. An absolutely safe investment. Put a few dollars in your purse and come. You won't be sorry. Fine music by Mr. Karl Forsell, the noted cornetist. Large list of beautiful presents to be distributed absolutely free. And in addition a desirable building lot is to be given away to the person holding the lucky number. It may be you. Lots adjoining the one we propose to give away sold at a previous sale for $100.00. This is equally desirable. Do not miss this sale. Your last chance. Saturday afternoon 2 o'clock until 5.

Your Prosperous Neighbor Will Be There.
